Due to potential technical difficulties, please consider submitting written comments by September 15, 2023, to bopmail@dca.ca.gov for consideration.

Individuals seeking to receive Continuing Professional Development (CPD) credit for attending the Board meeting via Webex will be required to provide their name and email to log into the meeting via Webex. Individuals who attend the Board meeting by phone will be required to email BOPCE@dca.ca.gov following the meeting, and provide their name, license number, and the phone number that was used to call into the meeting. The Board will use such information for purposes of logging and certifying attendance for CPD credit. Failure to provide this information may result in the Board being unable to verify attendance for CPD credit.

Members of the public who are not seeking to receive CPD credit for attending the Board meeting may, but are not obligated to, provide their names or personal information as a condition of observing or participating in the meeting. When signing into the Webex platform, participants may be asked for their name and email address. Participants who choose not to provide their names will need to provide a unique identifier such as their initials or another alternative, so that the meeting moderator can identify individuals who wish to make public comment; participants who choose not to provide their email address may utilize a fictitious email address like in the following sample format: XXXXX@mailinator.com

All agenda items are subject to action being taken on them during the meeting by the Committee at its discretion.

ADJOURNMENT

Except where noticed for a time certain, all times are approximate and subject to change. The meeting may be canceled or the means by which the public may observe or comment may change without notice. For verification, please check the Board's Web site at www.psychology.ca.gov, or call (916) 574-7720. Items may be taken out of order, tabled or held over to a subsequent meeting, for convenience, to accommodate speakers, or to maintain a quorum.

Meetings of the Board of Psychology are open to the public except when specifically noticed otherwise in accordance with the Open Meeting Act. The public may take appropriate opportunities to comment on any issue before the Board or its committees, at the time the item is heard, but the President or Committee Chair may, at his or her discretion, apportion available time among those who wish to speak. Board members who are present who are not members of the Committee may observe, but may not participate or vote.

The meeting is accessible to the physically disabled. A person who needs a disability-related accommodation or modification in order to participate in the meeting may make a request by contacting Antonette Sorrick, Executive Officer, at (916) 574-7720 or email bopmail@dca.ca.gov or send a written request addressed to 1625 N. Market Boulevard, Suite N-215, Sacramento, CA 95834. Providing your request at least five (5) business days before the meeting will help ensure availability of the requested accommodation. Links to agenda items, with exhibits are available at www.psychology.ca.gov, prior to the meeting date.

The goal of the Outreach and Communications Committee is to provide critical information to all Californians regarding the evolving practice of psychology, relevant and emerging issues in the field of psychology, and the work of the Board.
