Agenda Item #17: Consider Implementation of Enhanced EPPP, Including Latest Information from Association of State and Provincial Psychology Boards (ASPPB), and Possible Regulatory Amendments to Title 16, California Code of Regulations sections 1388-1389.1 (Exams)

Dr. Horn recused herself from the room while this item was being discussed as she worked with Association of State and Provincial Psychology Boards (ASPPB) to help create the Enhanced EPPP.

Ms. Sorrick provided a recap of what was previously agreed on and voted by the Board at the August Board meeting. She stated that staff recommends drafting a letter to ASPPB in response to the letter ASPPB provided the Board.

Dr. Phillips stated that the Board is trying to get clarity on whether the Enhanced EPPP is going to become mandatory in order to decide as to whether to adopt the Enhanced EPPP or not. He stated that if ASPPB does not announce their intention to make the Enhanced EPPP mandatory then it would be difficult to justify the creation of a regulatory package.

Board discussion ensued regarding early adoption.

Mr. Foo suggested asking ASPPB when they will make the data from beta testing available and provided to the Office of Professional Examination Services (OPES). He stated that evaluating results was a concern of the EPPPs taskforce.

Dr. Janet Farrell, licensed psychologist, questioned the external validity of the Enhanced EPPP. She wrote to ASPPB expressing her concerns and had not received a reply. Dr. Farrell stated that complaint levels from other states who choose to be early adopters should be reviewed. She stated that if the Enhanced EPPP tests clinical competency as ASPPB claims the test does then complaints should be significantly lower in the states that chose to adopt the Enhanced EPPP, specifically in the standard of care.

Cindy Yee-Bradbury, Director of Clinical Psychology Training Program at UCLA, stated that she is a member of the Council of University Directors of Clinical Psychology (CUDCP). She stated that CUDCP recommends that ASPPB alter exam development and work with stakeholders to address the many concerns of the Enhanced EPPP. Dr. Bradbury asked the Board to advocate on behalf of CUDCP to combine the current EPPP with the Enhanced EPPP to create a single exam replacement.

Dr. Elizabeth Winkelman, California Psychological Association (CPA), read an official statement from CPA's Board of Directors to the Board which stated CPA's opposition on early adoption of the Enhanced EPPP.

181 Dr. Farrell stated she has concerns as to why external validity was not initially 182 addressed.

183
184 It was M(Foo)/S(Erickson)/C to adopt staff recommendation with the amendment to 185 include in the letter the request that ASPPB make their external validity data available to 186 OPES.

204 Enforcement Committee Meetings open to the public.

205

206 Ms. Russell wanted to clarify that in February 2019 there would be a quarterly Board
207 Meeting as well as an Enforcement Committee meeting. She also asked where she can 208 submit her comments regarding the Child Custody Stakeholder Meeting. The Board
209 confirmed that an Enforcement Committee meeting will be held prior to the quarterly
210 Board in February and Ms. Sorrick stated that written comments can be submitted to 211 Board staff which will in turn would be provided to the Enforcement Committee for 212 review.

213

214 c. Voluntary Surrender of a License – Procedure and Possible Statutory Change

215 Ms. Acquaye-Baddoo stated that in October 2018, the Executive Officer, enforcement
216 staff, and DCA legal counsel met to discuss a possible mechanism for licensees with a
217 cognitive impairment or incapacity, and without a pending complaint involving client
218 harm, to request the Board's consent to voluntarily surrender a license outside of the 219 formal discipline process. Ms. Acquaye-Baddoo provided the Board with a preliminary 220 outline of the proposed policy. Also provided to the Board were the draft letters to 221 implement the process and proposed statutory language for those who wanted to 222 reinstate their license once the voluntary surrender had been accepted by the Board.

245 letters used by enforcement staff and recommended minor changes to the letters.

246

247 The Board discussed the closure letter regarding no jurisdiction.

248

249 It was M(Foo)/S(Casuga)/C to adopt the letter and delegate to staff to work with Dr.
250 Horn to make necessary changes to the letter.

273
274 It was M(Erickson)/S(Casuga)/M to approve the Enforcement Committee Report.

298 i. DCA Brochure "Professional Therapy Never Includes Sex" – Update

299
300 The Board reviewed and discussed the brochure.

301
302 Dr. Schaefer, Division II of CPA and CAPIC Boards, suggested leaving the definition of 303 the term bartering goods as written and adding language on sexual bartering.

304
305 The Board discussed the term 'bartering' and how it should be presented in the 306 brochure.

307
308 Dr. Schaefer stated that although lines 199-200 are being stricken from the brochure, it
309 still sounds as if the bartering is being defined. She stated that the definition conflicts
310 with APA ethics.

311

312 Dr. Winkelman agrees with Dr. Schaefer's concern that if you take out the word barter
313 but still leave in the definition of bartering then it's talking about something that is, in 314 certain circumstances, permitted under the ethics code.

315
316 It was M(Erickson)/S(Casuga)/C to approve the language as amended to strike lines
317 199-200 and revise lines 387-388 as discussed.

350

351 Dr. Horn wanted to specifically discuss the code sections that deal with Exemptions.
352 She stated there was some confusion in the last Licensing Committee meeting
353 regarding the title of a psychologist working in an exempt setting. Dr. Horn stated that 354 Ms. Marks provided a suggestion of combining the sections of the Business and 355 Professions Code for clarification which was provided to the Board. Dr. Horn stated that 356 Ms. Marks provided the Board with her language recommendation for 2910.

Discussion ensued regarding psychologists in exempt settings.

Dr. Winkelman stated her concern that this language would not allow psychology professors to be called 'Psychology Professor'. She wanted to urge the Board to reconsider the language so that a person who is not providing psychological services but is hired by a university or college as a psychology professor, be permitted to call themselves a psychology professor.

The Board discussed amending the language.

Dr. Schaefer asked the Board if they are going to provide a definition of 'school psychologist'. Dr. Phillips stated he believes this is an advocacy effort that may be more appropriate coming from professional associations instead of the Board.

It was M(Foo)/S(Acquaye-Baddoo)/C to approve the language as presented by Ms. Marks in relation to Business and Professions Code 2910.

585 dependent adults are provided with adequate and appropriate training regarding the 586 assessment and reporting of child, elder, and dependent adult abuse that will 587 ameliorate, reduce, and eliminate the trauma of abuse and neglect and ensure the 588 reporting of abuse in a timely manner to prevent additional occurrences.
